

In desperate need of broadband. No ISDN (too far from switch), no cable modem (exclusive access for Service Electric in our area), no competition to help drive us forward.

PPL has this broadband powerline and it looks promising, but what can we do to get some technology approved in the area?

Dial up is killing us!

JG